TO ABOLISH ALL FINES

Base Ball Magnates Will Try a New Plan For Next Season.

UMPIRES HAVE AN INNING.

Players Will Be Ordered From the Ground Whenever They Make Themselves Obnoxious-Trouble Over the Doyle-Gleason Deal.

New York, Nov. 14 .- The National Baseball League magnates resumed their session at 12 o'clock and all the clubs advised the abolition of all fines for the be of great value to the organization. coming season and that players would be immediately ordered from the obnoxious to the umpires.

The Doyle-Gleason exchange sanctioned yesterday has aroused John T. also adopted urging that the age of con-Brush of Cincinnati, who said he held sent be raised from 13 to 16 years in an option on the New Yorker. He was Iowa. very much chagrined when he found that Doyle had been traded to Baltimore. Mr. Vonder Horst said: "Brush may kick all he wants to, but we have the man, and you know that possession is nine points of the law." Soldiers' Home Association Adjourns.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Nov. 14.-The tumwa, Ia.; J. B. McDonald, Indianapo-

Move to Foreclose on Tabor Property. DENVER, Nov. 14.-Default was entered against the defendants in the suit of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company against H. A. W. Tabor, the Tabor Amusement company and the Tabor Real Estate company and their assignees for failure to answer within the specified time. This is the last step in the suit brought by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company for permission to institute foreclosure proceedings on the mortgages of $400,000 which they held against the property involved.

Fusion Carried the Day. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 14.-Fusion carried the day and the Populists and Republicans decided to unite in the state campaign. Resolutions declaring for free silver, opposing the national bank system and advocating "honest elections" by force, if necessary, were requiring the senate not to seat Senator Morgan and asking congress to investigate election methods.

Colorado Railroad Incorporated. DENVER, Nov. 14-Papers were filed with the secretary of state incorporating the Albuquerque, Colorado and Pacific road. The route selected is from Albuquerque to Denver and Grand Junction, Colo., to Salt Lake, and thence to some point not yet decided on the Puget sound. Surveys have already been completed from Albuquerque to Grand Junction and grading will probably be begun in the spring.

Servant Given $13,000 Damages. Dallas, Tex., Nov. 14.-The jury rendered a verdict of $13,000 against the Oriental hotel at Dallas, Tex. The judgment is in favor of Maggie Sline, a servant who sued for $52,000 for being injured in an elevator accident. Several other servants have similar suits pending because of the same accident. The Oriental Investment company is the Anhauser-Busch Brewing association of St. Louis.

Increased Production of Pig Iron. NEW YORK, Nov. 14 .- Returns collected by the Iron Age show that the rate of production of pig iron had reached the enormous total of 217,308 tons per week on Nov. 1. The October production is estimated at 915,846, as compared with 763,964 tons in July. Presbyterian church, died, aged 27. He was a Princeton graduate. The remains will be taken to St. Joseph, Mo., for burial.

Mill Proprietor Assigns. PLATISMOUTH, Neb., Nov. 14.-Fred Schroeder, proprietor of the big Cedar Creek mill, turned over the mill and entire stock of flour to his creditors. The liabilities amount to over $16,000, while ing accounts are given as the cause. Iowa and Sarpy county men are the principal creditors.

Battleship Indiana Completed. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—The battleship Indiana has been completed so far as the builders are concerned. She lies at the dock at Cramps reads to be transferred to the navy department. The Indiana is expected to go into commission at League Island navy yard next Convention of District Judges. DES MOINES, Nov. 14.—Chief Justice Given of the state supreme court has announced that he will probably call a convention of the district judges of the state, to be held here during the session of the legislature the coming winter.

Will Ignore Short Haul Clause. CHICAGO, Nov. 14 .- The western lines have decided to ignore the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce act in making their rates from Chicago to Utah. They base their right to do this on a decision handed down in the United States circuit court here in 1892. The decision declared that the word "line" as applied to the fourth section of the act is limited to one road and that two connecting roads are not a line. Under that decision short haul charges greater than the through rates over connecting lines are not in vitin-meeting of the Iowa association closed after a two days sion. The officers elected are: Presi-dent, Mrs. M. Lloyd Kennedy, Sioux City; vice president, Mrs. Jane Calla-han, Des Mcines; recording secretary, Miss Kittie Pierce, Des Moines; corresponding secretary, Miss Bertha Bassett Creston; treasurer, Mrs. C. Holt Flint, Des Moines. For the office of president there was an interesting contest, although the ballot showed sentiment pretty much one way. The candidates were Mrs. Kennedy. Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Rama Woods of Sutherland, Mrs. Rowena Stevens of were represented. The league umpires Boone, the president for the past year, were called before the meeting to testify and Miss Moffatt of Marshalltown. as to the manner of their treatment by Mrs. Kennedy was urged for the place the players during the season just closed | because she is probably the leading and the previous one. It is rumored woman lawver of the state, and it was that the general sense of the meeting thought her legal knowledge would Committees were named to have grounds whenever they made themselves | the next legislature and resolutions were adopted urging the rights of women to the ballot. A resolution was > POOR CIBL RECEIVES A FORTUNE. Unexpected Inheritance of $15,000,000 by a Poor Gardener's Daughter.

PREPARE FOR ACTIVE LOBBY WORK.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.-A remarkable romance in real life has come to life by the sudden and unexpected inheritance of a fortune of $15,000,000 by the convention of the Northwestern Sol- William Kelly. The legacy comes from only that, but he knew that for the next niers' Home association has adjourned. the estate of a long dead uncle, Peter ten years the tax would be steadily in-Next year's meeting will be held at Kelly, who amassed a vast fortune in creased. He had on several occasions Grand Rapids, Mich., in June. Officers the Australian gold fields over 30 years evaded it by engaging himself to some were elected as follows: President, L. | ago. Peter Kelly was living with his attractive maiden, then, when the dan-G. Rutherford, Grand Rapids, Mich.; parents in Lancashire, England, when ger of taxation was past for that year, secretary, Mrs. L. A. Bates, Aurora, the Australian gold craze broke out and causing a quarrel which resulted in his Neb.; vice president, S. M. French, he went to that land to make his for- dismissal, but the authorities had be-Monte Vista, Colo.; S. B. Evans, Ot- tune. Nothing was heard of him until come suspicious, and Tom had reason lis; James A. Sexton, Chicago; L. Van his mother received word that he would be closely investigated. Clearly he must Voorhis, Lawrence, Kan.; E. F. Grabill, soon return home a millionaire. He did find some new and yet plausible way to Greenville, Mich,: Henry A. Castle, St. | not come, however. Inquiry was begun | evade the tax on bachelors this year or Paul; H. M. Barber, Fullerton, Neb.; and the son's story of his millions was deprive himself of many luxuries which E. E. Clough, Deadwood, S. D. Wyom- verified, part of the money being in he was sure he could not do without. ing was admitted to membership. The Australian banks. The family received Down at his clubhouse his friends meeting closed with an elaborate ban- the interest on the fortune, which was were entertaining a guest from abroad, quet, tendered by the management of valued at $15,000,000. Some time ago and Tom ought to have shed the light the Iowa soldiers' home, the retiring Kelly learned of the existence of a will of his cheerful smile on the scene. He president, Clough, acting as toastmas. in which all of the estate was bequeathed knew very well that the fellows never to his eldest child, Elizabeth. At that enjoyed themselves quite so well when

SOVEREIGN SCORES DESERTERS. He Made Some Suggestions as to Method

of Strengthening the Order. WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.-The chie public interest in the meeting of the Knights of Labor was in the addresses of General Master Workman Sovereign and General Worthy Foreman Michael J. Bishop. Much of Mr. Sovereign's adery of those who headed the revolt the club." against the general officers of the order during the past year. He reviewed what he termed their "devilish treachery" and their efforts to "disrupt the or-

He made some suggestions as to the methods of strengthening the order, but the principal feature of his address was adopted. Kolb withdrew his opposition his appeal to the general assembly to for that confounded matrimonial tax." to fusion. Resolutions were adopted give to his recent order boycotting national bank notes its official sauction.

Ruth Case Practically Settled. PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 14.-In the case of South Dakota against Thomas H. Ruth, late superintendent of schools and public lands, charging Ruth with criminal negligence, whereby the state lost about $50,000 through the Taylor defalcation, Judge Jaffy suttained a demurrer offered on the part of the defense which practically settles the case.

State Needs the Cash. CHEYENNE, Wy., Nov. 14.—The state | look very bad for the men." board of land control is making an effort to have the lands at the disposal of the state amounting to 1 early 400,000 | to pay as a doctor's bill.' acres, selected and leased. The income voted to the support of state institutions and the common schools.

WOMAN AND HER WOES.

Here Are Just a Few of the Handicaps the Sex.

First .- Excepting on the sly, she inhumanly barred from using a cigarette

Second. -She is Lot allowed to make love, but merely to receive the manufac-

Third. - When she bets with any memper of the other sex, she rarely has the privilege of paying it if she loses. Fourth. -She is unable to go unattended to the theater. Fifth. -She cannot even dance more than three times in succession with a partner whom she likes without being suspected of a tendency to flirt. Sixth. -No matter how put out-by her maid or her milliner-she is not permitted the use of stronger language than "Dear me!" or "How tiresome!"

Seventh. -She may not chaff the waiter at a foreign table d'hote, although she knows his language perfect the assets are about $10,500. Outstand- | ly and longs to take advantage of the chance of showing that she knows it. Eighth. -By a masculine assumption she is deemed unable to play cricket or football and is doomed to less violent games, like croquet and tennis, with mild young men. Ninth. -Though over head and ears in love, she may never make an offer, except, perhaps, in leap year, and for this it would be hard for her to quote an actual precedent. Tenth. -She is expected to be able to make use of a needle and is thus disabled from competing with men in works of idleness. Eleveuth. -Her ears are steeped in slang when her brothers come home from school, and yet she is obliged, as far as possible, to keep her lips from using it. Twelfth.-If there be a baby in the house where she is visiting, she is presumed to be unable to talk sensibly Thirteenth. - When her married sister makes a call, she is always pounced upon to entertain the children. Fourteenth.-However humorous he temperament may naturally be, she cannot crack a joke or sing a comic sons without being thought eccentric.

Fifteenth.—She must not practice boxing, except as regards the ears of her small brothers. menth, -She is not allowed the CHAPTER L was unusually high, and genial Tom hthree years" - . some 'I otod' the new year, and Miss Alice Griggs ment at any time, it is bed enough, but had rejected him early in May. It was afthonoises so after allowing it do run now the middle of November, and as more than six months had elapsed since that rejection he knew it would not be recognized in the eyes of the law as a sufficient reason why he should not be taxed. which he regretted now.

In the state where he lived there was a law to the effect that every bachelor of her pension." should be taxed who could not show a written rejection or in other ways give proof that he had proposed matrimony charge of the work of the association in to some eligible young lady and had been refused within a period of six months. It was determined to resort to every lawful means to break up the unmarried condition which forced so many wemen to compete with men in the labor market. Taxes were levied in accordance with the eligibility of the bachelor, and the money derived therefrom was used in the support of unprotected women. Tom Wainwright, being 30 years of age, handsome, prosperous and in every way able to care for a wife, had for five years been obliged to pay a tax which 25-year-old daughter of a poor gardener, be considered out of all reason. Not nearly a quarter of a century ago, when to believe that another such event would time he made no effort to secure it. Two he was absent, but he felt in no mood years ago he engaged an attorney, who for merrymaking tonight. He donned ed close beside the open grate; then, throwing himself into his most inviting easy chair, gave himself to the problem of no feasible solution when, the guest | ceit. from abroad having been sufficiently entertained, Tom was joined by Sander

Ridgway, his most intimate club friend, "What's up, old fellow?" asked Sander, helping himself to an easy dress was devoted to the alleged treach- chair and a cigar. "We missed you at

> "I was too stupid to make a decent appearance, so preferred to remain at home. Have a good time?" "Tiptop! I wish you could have met > that fellow, Tom. What ails you, anyhow? You look decidedly morbid." "I feel morbid. Business has been dull the past year, and it is almost time "You must have a big one to pay to make you look like this." "It was $5,000 last year, and it will be heavier this. Confound such a law, anyhow! I believe it would be better to let women scratch for themselves, as they used to do in the good old days of our grandmothers." "Oh, I don't know about that! Women's work cheapens labor, you know. That is one reason why the matrimonial tax became a law. And, after all, you would not like to see women obliged to care for themselves. It would

"I know it, Sander. I presume I'm selfish, but, really, this tax is as hard

"Then why don't you marry? You from the lease of the state lands is de- | could support a wife on $5,000 a year." "I have not yet seen any one who was worth the price of my freedom. No, thank you, Sander. I'd rather pay the money and live alone. But I don't see just where the money is to come from. There's the rub. I shall be obliged to take a cheaper room, discharge my valet, take meals at a second class restaurant and smoke 5 centers."

"That's where the law gets in its work, my boy. By a steadily increasing pressure of self denial it hopes"-

"It is outrageous!" "It gives you a choice. For my part prefer matrimony."

"Is that a fact?" "It is. " "Who is the young lady?"

"Miss Alice Griggs." "O-h-h-h! Ahem! Is that-is that why she refused me?" "I presume it had something to do with it, my boy. She is a very sensible young lady. "Tastes differ. However, I think she is. I congratulate you, Sander. You know, of course, that there was no serious lovemaking between us." that you were fishing for a refusal, so she accommodated you."

"I wish I had not given her the opportunity to accommodate me quite so early in the season. It might have helped me out of this difficulty had I been less premature with my proposal." Tom did not choose to have it known that he had been so carried away by the charms of the lovely Alice that he had he liked to think of her. A number of proposed without a thought of the consequences. It was a mistake which he did not make very often. He almost envied Sander, but he did not propose to have that known either. He was glad now that Alice had believed his lovemaking to have been for the purpose of securing a refusal, yet he could not help wondering whether it would have made any difference had she been undeceived. It was something he should never know, for he did not care to have the wife of aucther know that she came nearer to his heart than any lady whom he had ever met. "Why don't you become engaged again?" asked Sander.

"I have gone my limit in that direction," replied Tom. "If I am party to another broken engagement, I shall be subject to a heavy fine."

"You are in a bad fix, old fellow, and that's a fact. Still you might let the next engagement run for the three years allowed, and then perhaps you would be better fixed Enapeially, and the fine would not fround you."

ould otherwise be spent in the matri-By EFFIE W. MERRIMAN. The mountail taxito apply toward the payment of the fine, and it would be a great post of present difficulties."

(If you could find some girl in whom sloo you could confide—some one who would In the year 1932 the tax on bachelors | agree do flismiss you at the end of the Wainwright was disposed to evade it iff an iff should be in trouble if she did possible. It was due on the first that of motor When a man breaks the jengagethree years the law has no mercy on him. It would mean financial ruin." "Clarissa Pearce is a sensible sort of

"I'd rather be dead than be obliged to marry her. She would never let me He had given no other young lady an off of her own accord. Besides she is opportunity to say "No," an oversight 28 or 29 years old. She would not make such an arrangement unless she thought me in earnest, for it would deprive her "I don't understand."

"Don't you know that if a woman receives no proposal of marriage between the twenty-fifth and thirtieth years she receives an extra amount of money on pay day which is called a pension for the unprotected? This pension is paid once in three years, after the age of 30, to those who have not rejected a suitor since the last payment. Even if I could make up my mind to act as Miss Clarissa's escort during the next three years I doubt if she would be willing to consent to the arrangement, unless she meant to hold me to it at the end of that time."

"I had forgotten the pension law. It would deprive Miss Clarissa of two payments,

"And I should be taking an awful risk. No, Sauder, it won't do. We must think of something else."

For several minutes there was silence between the two young men. Then Sander startled his friend by springing to his feet with a most exultant shout. "I have it!" he said. "Tom, I can help you out of this scrape like magic. I know the very girl." "You do? Old boy, if you help me now, I'll never forget it.' "I have a consin"-"Have I seen her?" "No; she lives in the country."

"Pretty?"

"Pretty as a picture-graceful, too, and very well read. She is a stunner and no mistake, but"-"Well, don't hesitate. But what?"

"She has an awful temper." has declared that the enormous legacy dressing gown and slippers, set a box of the Shrew.' It would add variety to my had for little money. Reached via will be placed at the disposal of the girl | choice cigars on the table, which he push- | humdrum existence. Really, I believe I | the Union Pacific System. should like it."

"Well, suppose you sit down and Gen'l Pass. and Ticket Agent, write a note explaining the stuation which confronted him. He had thought fully. Daisy hates anything like de-

"Do you mean that I must tell her

'Tom, I can help you out of this scrape.' may evade the matrimonial tax, and that she must agree beforehand to dismiss me at the end of that time?"

"Precisely. Daisy would try to make life a burden to you if she thought you were deceiving her." "Do you suppose she will consent to such an arrangement?" "I think so. She wishes to study music and has decided not to marry be fore her twenty-sixth birthday. She is 21 now and has property enough to enable her to take care of herself, so she cares nothing for the maiden's pay day. I think she would like an escort who would not trouble her with a lover's importunities and who would act as a shield between herself and possible "It will do no harm to propose, at any rate." Tom wrote the letter, as his friend had suggested, sealed it carefully, addressed it to Miss Margaret Blake and gave it to Sander to deliver. Sander inclosed it in one giving full particulars, and in due time Tom received the following reply.

Mr. Tom Wainwright: DEAR SIR-I have just finished reading your proposal and my cousin's pleasant account of you, which he was so good as to send with the proposal. In reply, I will say that I agree to consider myself your betrothed for a period of three years and to release you at the end of that time, provided you conduct yourself during that time as a gentleman should toward the lady whom he esteems highly, but does not expect to marry. I do not like endear-ments, but I understand that society is some what exacting in regard to the behavior of engaged people, and I shall try to so conduct myself that we may not be commented upon can see that you would prefer not to have it known that we are engaged simply for con-venience. It will please me to have a desirable scort during my stay in town, and Cousin Sander assures me that I shall find you simply perfect. I wonder what he has told you about ne. That I have an abominable temper, I presume. He considers that my chief charac-"To be sure. Alice said she suspected teristic. Well, it is bad, but console yourself the only fault I have! And I am not cross when things go to suit me. If you prove a satisfactory escore, I presume 'you will never know from experience that I am not simply angelie! Yours truly, MARGARET BLAKE. Tom found this letter quite satisfactory and could hardly wait for the day when he was to see Miss Margaret, or Daisy, as her cousin called her and as his best friends knew of his good fortune in finding a charming girl who was willing to be engaged to him for a period of three years and to give him his liberty at the end of that time. "It will," he explained, "not deprive me of my freedom in any sense of the term. In fact, it will give me greater freedom. I can be pleasant with other girls without their thinking that I am making love, and even if I should fall in love with one of them my engagement to Daisy will not prevent me from explaining matters to the other girl and declaring my sentiments,"

It was really quite a nice arrangement, and Tom would not have had a moment's uneasiness before he met Miss Margaret had he not overheard two of his friends talking about him one day at dinner

"I wouldn't have believed Tom Wainwright would be so simple," said one of them, "as to go and engage himself to a girl whom he had never seen." "He depended upon Kidgway's judgmelaqualitivest J.Besidem did iyou beveir know. Rida way to he acqueinted with any girl who was not charming? All girls are allied in his eyes. He has no mirre judgment that to Hottentetill? -"There is un own" replied the other. speaker, whom I would rather see eaught than Tom Wainwright. He is so fastidious! Think what it would mean to him to be obliged to esport (an ngly Woman for three long years and see Sander walking away with pretty Alice Griggs (150 moo) noting the block althou have the water they need next snin-

Tom was decidedly uncomfortable when he left the table. His discomfort increased as the day on which Miss Margaret was to arrive drew nearer. He was very nervous when he went to the station with Sander to meet her. He had hoped to meet her before it became necessary to announce the engagement, but she was delayed in her preparations, and it was nearly Christmas when she reached the city. All engagements must be announced before the first day of Dccember or the bachelor was not relieved from the necessity of paying the matrimonial tax.

[Continued in next issue.]

STATE OF ORIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, / LUCAS COUNTY,

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid and that said firm will pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars for each and every case of Catarrn that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Frank J. Cheney. Sworn to before me and subcribed in ny presence this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public. SEAL

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonia's free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo O.

WHEATLAND, WYO.

Sold by Druggists, 75 c.

There is no finer agricultural sec tion in all this broad western country than can be found in the vicinity of the beautiful little town of Wheatland, Wyoming, ninety-six miles north of Cheyenne. Immense crops, never failing supply of water, "That doesn't count. I may show rich land, and great agricultural you an interesting case of 'Taming of resources. Magnificent farms to be E. L. LOMAX,

Omaha, Neb.

A. P. KITTELL, F. H. BENSON Kittell & Benson,

IRRIGATION ENGINEERS Prospective schemes investigated. Unprofitable schemes rejuvenated. Surveys, Maps, Estimates and reports made, and construction superintended. Office in North Platte, North Platte, Neb. NOTICE OF SALE.

in the matter of the estate of Benjamin F. Moore, MOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That in pur-N suance of an order of Wm. Neville, judge of the district court of Lincoln county, made on the 1st day of August, 1895 for the sale of the real the East front door of the courthouse in North Platte, Nebraska, on SATURDAY, the 7th day of DECEMBER, 1895, at one o'clock p. m. of said day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash the following decribed real estate, to-wit: The west half of the othwest quarter of section 26, and the west half of the northwest quarter of section 25, all in town-ship 9 north, of range 28 west. Said sale will re-

Dated August 31st, 1895. HENRY C. MINTON, Administrator of the estate of Benjamin F. Moore, By Grimes & Wilcox, his attorneys. N153

 SMOKERS

In search of a good cigar will always find it at J. F. Schmalzried's. Try them and judge. ••••••••••

CLAUDE WEINGAND, DEALER IN

Coal Oil, Gasoline,

Crude Petroleum and Coal Gas Tar.

Leave orders at Newton's Store.

R. D. THOMSON, Architect, and

127 Sixth St. Cor. of Vine, NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA

HUMPHREYS Dr. Humphreys' Specifics are scientifically and carefully prepared Remedies, used for years in private practice and for over thirty years by the people with entire success. Every single Specific a special cure for the disease maned.

1—Fevers, Congestions, Inflammations. .25 2—Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic... .25 3—Teething; Colic, Crying, Wakefulness .25 4—Diarrhen, of Children or Adults.... .25 7-Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis..... 8-Neuralgia, Toothache, Faceache..... 9-Headaches, Sick Headache, Vertigo... 10-Dyspepsia, Billousness, Con 11-Suppressed or Painful Periods... 12-Whites, Too Profuse Periods...... 13-Croup, Lavyngitis, Hoarseness... 14-Salt Rheum, Erystpeles, Eruptions... 15-Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains..... 16-Maiarla, Chills, Fever and Ague...... 19-Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head. 20-Whooping Cough ... 27-Kidney Diseases ... 28-Nervous Debility ... 30-Urinary Weakness 34-Sore Throat, Quincy, Ulcerated Throat .25 "77" DR. HUMPHREYS' GRIP, 250

Put up in small bottles of pleasant pellets, just fit your vest pocket.

Sold by Bruggists, or sent pressid on receipt of price.
Dr. Housenests' Manual (144 pages.) Manual years. HUNPHREYS' MED. CO., 111 & 512 WHRIST St., NEW YORK.

win returned W

U. P. TIME TABLE. No. 4—Fast Mail...... Dept 12:10 A. M. 815 A. M. 8 15 A. M. " 4:00 A, M

GOING WEST-MOUNTAIN TIME.

N. B. OLDS, Agent. FRENCH & BALDWIN.

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASKA. Office over N. P. Ntl. Bank.

ORIMES & WILCOX, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASEA. Office over North Platte National Bank.

DR. N. F. DONALDSON, Assistant Surgeon Union Pac.fic Reflway and Member of Pension Board, NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASKA. · Office over Streitz's Drug Store.

WM. EVES, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, NORTH PLATTE, - - NEBRASKA

Office: Neville's Block. Diseases of Women GEO. NAUMAN'S

MARKET

SIXTH STREET

Meats at wholesale and re-Fish and Game season. Sausage at times. Cash paid for Hides.

E. B. WARNER, Funeral Director. AND EMBALMER.

A full line of first-class funeral supplies always in stock. NORTH PLATTE, - _NEBRASKA. Telegraph orders promptly attended to.

Hershey & Co.

OF ALL KINDS,

Buggies, Road Carts, Wind Mills, Pumps, Barb

Wire, Etc. Locust Street, between Fifth and Sixth

NORTH PLATTE MARBLE: WORKS,

W. C. RITNER, Man'f'r of and Dealer fu MONUMENTS, : HEADSTONES

And all kinds of Monumental and Cemetery work Careful attention given to lettering of every de ption. Jobbing done on short notice. Order fielfild and Estimates freely furnished.

Curbing, Building Stone,

LEGAL NOTICE. chaintiff, did on the 19th day of July, 1895, file his stition in the District court of Lincoln Nebrasks, against Alpha Hill, Serikla Hill, W. E. Higley and W. M. Strong, as defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mort-gage executed by Atpha Hill and Seriida Hill to the Saint Joseph Loan & Trust Company, a cor-poration, upon the east half of the northeast No. 7—Pacific Express ... Dept 7:10A. M poration, upon the east half of the northeast No. 1—Limited ... 11:00 P. M quarter (E ½ N E ½), the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter (N W ½ N E ½) and the northeast No. 23—Freight ... 8:20 A. M quarter of the northwest quarter (N E ½ N W ½). all in section numbered ten (10) in township numbered ten (10), of rauge numbered thirty-four (34), west of the Sixth principal meridian containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres more or the payment of a certain promissory note datalf October first, A. D., 1889, for the sum of six hung dred dollars ($500), due and payable on the first day of October, 1894, which day of October, 1894, which note and mortgage were afterwards sold, assigned and delivered to the above named plaintiff who is now the legal owner and holder thereof; that there is now due upon said note and mortgage the sum of sex hundred dollars ($600) with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent, per annum from the first day of April, 1894, until the first day of October 1864, and with interest thereon at the rate of the per cent. per annum from the first day of October 1894, until paid; for which sum, with interest and costs of suit, said plaintiff prays for a decree that the defendants above named be required as interest. the same or that said premises be sold to salisfy the amount found due said plaintiff, and for place cree forever barring and foruclosing all of said defendants from all equity of redemption or other

> Attorney for Plantill. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATIONS: .70% Land Office at North Platte, Neb.,) October 31st, 1891 (1701) Notice is hereby given that John Cooper has filed notice of intention to make final people lefore Register and Receiver at his office in North Platte. o., on Tuesday, the 10th day of December 1815, an timber culture application No. 11,710, for the north, east quarter of section No. 20, in this off No. 18 orth, range No. 34 west. He names as witnesses. Seorge Dugan, Joseph Weir, John WAFattel Affaire Ladwick, all of Paxton, Nebraska John F. HINMAN, Register. 11

Interest in said premises.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 9th day of December, 1895.

Dated this 28th day of October, 1898.

TAKEN UP to redmun On the 27th day of August, 1895, on my place on section 10, town 12, range 28, one sorrel mare about 21 years bill? white streak in forehead mearing left evel . white on nose, small white spots on her in back, hind legs white from knees down, weighs about 800 pounds, that he A builter! when taken up. The owner is requested and take her away, or it will be sold ac and and a free ence wal of gailoro

> 114 WEST TRONPSTICION local M. P. lqdgp I Notary Bublica not Acres of Ditch Land Week teroted MATERION FOREIGN EXCHANGE Hier wird Dentschigesprochen. as the nunetcently office state and fourth in the Se-How are iment. -The Ariel Ladies' Farm and Spring Wagons, Your Wheels ? tertainment of the season. eral of our townspeople mave the ladies and recommend but those or vor bead, but those they other variety. galdrow that eire went tile characteristing of the conformal the conformal for the last new years. You In this Age of Wheels the tellow will does that the glod care of his muchide guarantum backure of the expected when the matter of pur LeMaster he Locksmith none 96aoy Kindy Chamadhinesh Atome a watch to a threshing machine. It bases of the source of the so

"His Prices are Right of distant there will be a 'kick" that it